Guidelines to Reporting Abuse & Neglect

Within four hours after the initial discovery of an incident of alleged physical abuse, sexual abuse, mental abuse, financial exploitation or neglect, the required reporter shall report the following allegations by phone to the Office of Inspector General hotline:

- Physical, sexual or mental abuse
- Neglect by an employee, community agency or facility
- Financial exploitation by an employee, community agency or facility

- Injury or death of an individual that occurs within a facility or community agency program when abuse or neglect may be suspected

Below is the information required when reporting Abuse & Neglect. Please note that it is not a violation of HIPPA to give information in the case of abuse or neglect.

- Information about the victim, including name, date of birth, sex, disability, identification number and/ or social security number

- Information about the incident, including what happened, when it happened, where it happened, how it happened and the identification of all witnesses
- Information about the accused (if known), including name, contact information and if the accused is presently working with or will be working with the alleged victim
- Information about the person initiating the complaint, including name, contact information, relationship to the victim and the need for anonymity (if applicable).

Reporting Fraud

Fraud means to knowingly get benefits or payments to which you are not entitled. Please let us know if you are aware of someone who is committing fraud under the Medicaid program. This could be a provider or a member. Some examples of fraud and abuse include a lie on an application, a provider billing for services that were not done and transportation (usage abuse).

You can report any suspected areas of fraud or abuse to us by calling provider services at (866) 329-4701. You can also use our Fraud and Abuse hotline at 1-866-685-8664. All information will be kept private.
